

SUPREME N. E. O. P.
LODGE UNITEBig Convention Being Held in Boston This Week

ELECTIONS OF INTEREST

Opening Session Was Held in International Hall This Forenoon at 10 O'clock—The Statistics by States.Boston, May 11.—The annual session of the supreme lodge, N. E. O. P., opened today in International hall, there being present of 200 delegates present.As this is the year when new officers are to be selected, special interest attends to the session. There is no contest for supreme warden, Frank A. Rice of Cambridge, who has served two years as supreme vice warden, being unopposed.For supreme vice warden, Hon. David S. Sherwood of Providence and Frank L.
Hill of New Haven are most prominently mentioned, while Herbert M. Shaw, P. G.
W. of Jamaica Plain, is said to be a candidate. The former has just completed two years as supreme guide, and has served in Rhode Island as grand warden.
Mr. Hill is a past grand warden and has also served as supreme guide for two years. H. M. Shaw of this state has just completed two years as grand warden of Massachusetts.For supreme treasurer there are two candidates, Hon. John P. Sanborn of Newport, R. I., the present incumbent, and Frederick T. Peabody of Melrose, the retiring supreme warden.Frank W. Sweet of Lynn, who has just completed two years as grand guide of Massachusetts, and Daniel E. Sullivan of Providence, past grand warden of Rhode Island, are prominently mentioned for supreme guide.The past year has been very prosperous. Some 28 lodges have been initiated, a net increase of 3,933 members being reported, and the total membership April 1, 1909, was 59,680.By states, the membership is as follows: Maine, 7,144; New Hampshire, 3,680; Vermont, 3,173; Massachusetts, 27,805; Rhode Island, 3,492; Connecticut, 14,446.The net gain in $1,000 members was 2,087; in $2,000 members, 180; in $3,000 members, 1,506; in social members, 274.
The insurance in force April 1, 1909, was $76,990,000.

TURPENTINE TRUST GUILTY.

Verdict Returned at Savannah Applies Duly to Five Individuals.Savannah, May 11.—"Guilty" was the verdict brought in late last night by the jury in the case of the so-called "turpentine trust," though the names of the two indicted corporations are omitted, and the verdict applies only to the five individual defendants, E. S.
Nash, president of the American Naval Stores company; Spencer P. Spitzer, chairman of its board of directors; George Meade Boardman of New York, its treasurer; J. F. C. Myers, vice-president of the company; and Carl Moller of Jacksonville, Fla., manager of that company, and also Jacksonville manager of the National Transportation and Terminal company. The sixth defendant, Chas. E. Delahay, was found not guilty at the direction of the court.A motion for a new trial will be made. The verdict finds the five individual defendants guilty on the first and second counts of the indictment charging the defendants with conspiring to monopolize interstate trade.The surprise the verdict caused in the court rooms and in the Savannah was complete. It was generally believed that a verdict would favor the defendants and that if it did not a recommendation to the mercy of the court would be made. The maximum sentence is a fine of $5,000 and a term of one year in prison.

ARMY BALLOON EXPLODED.

Operators Believe It Became Charged with Electricity in the Air.Omaha, Neb., May 11.—Army balloon No. 12, which ascended from Fort Omaha at 11:15 o'clock yesterday, landed at Jackson, Neb., at 6:45 o'clock last evening. In making a landing the gas bag exploded a few feet above the ground and was destroyed, but neither Captain Chandler nor Lieutenant Ware, who made the flight, was seriously injured. Jackson is about 30 miles west of Sioux City.
Captain Chandler believes that while at a high altitude the gas bag became charged with static electricity and that on reaching the ground contact with the earth caused an arc to form thus producing an electric spark which set fire to the bag.The ascension was made from Fort Omaha. The highest altitude reached was 4,400 feet, shortly after the balloon left the earth.

RETURNS UP TO DATE

Show That Morris Won Eight Against Two by Bond.St. John's N. F., May 11.—Returns from Saturday's parliamentary election were still very meagre and indecisive last night, showing only thus far that eight of the 36 seats have been won by the adherents of the sitting premier, Sir Edward Morris, and two by the supporters of Sir Robert Bond.Yesterday's returns from Harbor Main show that the Morrisites have re-elected Mr. Woodford, the minister of public works, and his colleague by largely increased majorities.

BEHIND THE BARS.

The Boyles Begin Their Sentence—Their Good Bye.Pittsburg, Pa., May 11.—James Boyle and his wife, Helen Boyle, were lodged in the Western penitentiary here last night shortly before eight o'clock, the former under a sentence of life imprisonment, the latter sentenced to serve a term of 25 years. The prisoners were taken first to a side room and told they would have to say good bye, as the rules of the prison would not permit them to see each other again. Mrs. Boyle threw her arms around "Jimmy's" neck and kissed him. She said:
"We must take it the best we can."
The prisoners then shook hands and the matron escorted Mrs. Boyle from the room. When she reached the corridor, she burst into tears and asked to be permitted once again to see her husband.
The request was granted and she again kissed and embraced Boyle. The man maintained silence.When Mrs. Boyle gave her belongings to the matron, she asked permission to keep a small mirror she carried, saying, "I do not want to leave it behind, as that would make me have seven years of bad luck." The mirror was returned to her and she will be allowed to keep it in her cell.SEN. TILLMAN DINES AT THE WHITE HOUSEThe First Dinner Invitation from the Occupant of the White House Since Senator's Fight with McLaurin on Floor of the Senate in 1902.Washington, D. C., May 11.—After several years' absence from the dinner list at the White House, Senator Tillman and wife were present last night at the hospitality of the Taft table. After Tillman's fight on the floor of the Senate with his colleague, Senator McLaurin, in 1902, he paid his last visit to the White House during Roosevelt's administration and it was only until recently that he paid his respects to President Taft at the White House.

A STRANGE ENCOUNTER.

Death Haft a Probable Murderer as He Aimed Weapon.Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 11.—The hand of death was all that prevented William White from killing James Thomas here yesterday afternoon. White, armed with a revolver and a razor, went to a barn where Thomas was employed and demanded some money. Meeting with a refusal, he drew the revolver. For several minutes Thomas managed to elude him by dodging in and among vehicles. Thomas was finally driven into a corner, but just as White lifted the revolver and fired he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs. The shot went wild. With blood pouring from his mouth White staggered forward several steps and fell dead.

DEALT HEAVY BLOWS.

To the Unwritten Law Defence in Case of Capt. Peter Haines.Fitching, L. I., May 11.—At the resumption of the trial today of Capt.
Peter Haines for the murder of William Annie, Prosecutor Gregg summed up the people's case, dealing heavy blows against the unwritten law argument.
Attorney McIntire spoke for the defense. It is expected that the fate of the prisoner will be in the hands of the jury this evening. It is generally considered that a disagreement is probable. At 10:45 today Justice Carrington began charging the jury.

MODEST AS EVER.

Wilbur and Orville Wright Refused to Lionized Today.New York, May 11.—Taftism as ever, Wilbur and Orville Wright returned on the Kroppingsen Co. collie.
They were welcomed by a bid delegation of the Aero Club of America but they refused to be lionized. The Wrights will leave later in the day for Dayton, O., to prepare an airship for the Fort Meyers tests by the government. A month from today they will receive their sister, Katherine, who accompanied them home.

ONE DROWNED, THREE SAVED

Thomas McFarlane Sank at Island Falls, Me.Island Falls, Me., May 11.—Thomas McFarlane was drowned, and Redford McFarlane and his wife and their small child were saved when the boat containing the people was capsized today.
The accident was seen from shore and help reached the overturned craft in time to rescue all but Thomas Mc-Farlane, who sank quickly. The victim was 35 years old. He leaves an aged mother.

BODY FLATTENED OUT.

Man Blown Against a Ceiling by an Explosion and Killed.New York, May 11.—Henry McGrath, a Brooklyn factory employe, was crushed to death yesterday by the explosion of a huge caldron containing a boiling mass of spleen and drugs. Standing on top of the great kettle, he turned on the steam and a terrific explosion followed.
He was flattened against the ceiling.

ELABORATE SERVICES.

Heinrich Copreid.New York, May 11.—The body of Heinrich Copreid who died in the Austrian Typo arrived today. It will be buried from the Metropolitan opera house tomorrow with most elaborate services which will be attended by all the noted singers of the city.

FOUR MEN KILLED

By a Mill Explosion Near Pittsburg Today.Pittsburg, May 11.—Four men were killed in a mill explosion here to-day.
The four were all laborers.FATAL BLOW IN QUARRELPeter Ackerman Killed at No.
Stratford, N. H.

OSCAR FOSS ARRESTED

They Have Had Trouble of Long Standing and Last Night They Came Together in Fight—Foss Held at Rochester, N. H.Dover, N. H., May 11.—Charged with first degree murder for killing Peter Ackerman in a roadside battle over a woman, Oliver Foss of Stratford was arrested in court this morning. He pleaded not guilty and was held without bail for a hearing on May 18. Foss was in the Stratford police court at midnight that he didn't know that Ackerman was dead.Rochester, N. H., May 11.—Oliver N.
Foss was placed in jail here early this morning in connection with the death of Peter Ackerman at North Stratford.
Ackerman was killed by a blow from Foss's fist during a fight. Foss is said to have admitted he had a scuffle with Ackerman.Ackerman was a well to do farmer residing on the edge of Hamstead, on a farm once owned by Foss, which Ackerman, who came from Lynn, Mass., had purchased about a year and a half ago.
Ackerman, who is about 55 years of age, came to the farm with his wife and 20-years-old son about the time of the purchase. His wife has since died, and at the time he was killed he was living on the place with the son alone. He had two other children, a married daughter, aged about 30, and a son, also married, 25 years old, who lives elsewhere.The difference between the two men, it is claimed, arose originally in a dispute as to the ownership of some wood that had been cut upon the farm bought by Ackerman, but which had not been removed when he took possession. Some of this he had used, claiming it went with the place, but Foss caused Ackerman and his son to be arrested for lackey and they were each fined a small sum in the Stratford police court.Following this there was another dis-ference. After the death of Mrs. Ackerman he employed, for a time, Mary Crockett, a woman about 40 years old, and having from Providence, R. I., as his housekeeper. Some time ago she left and alleging that Ackerman had tried to assault her she caused his arrest. He was tried in the Rochester police court before Judge Lawrence V. McGill and put under $100 bonds for his appearance at the September term of the superior court.Miss Crockett, adding to the complications, went to work for Foss.
The final altercation was witnessed by Fred Whittemore and Fred Preston of Stratford, and it is alleged they heard the word "woman" before the fatal blow was struck.Foss, also a farmer, is about 35 years old and is living with his second wife.
He has two children, one about 14 years old and the other 3 years old, each of them being the offspring of his different wives. He is reported to be naturally of a quarrelsome disposition.The body of Ackerman lay where it fell for some hours, surrounded by a crowd of curious onlookers while awaiting the arrival of Medical Examiner Dr.
Forrest L. Keay of Rochester, who had been summoned.WOMAN MURDERED NEAR PROVIDENCELaura Register, Aged 25, Was Killed When Her Skull Was Crushed in.There Is No Clue to the Murderers.Providence, R. I., May 11.—Laura Register, aged 25 years and divorced, of Arlington, was found with her skull crushed near a Jewish cemetery on the outskirts of this city to-day. There were signs of a terrible struggle. The woman had been feloniously assaulted. There is no clue to the murderer or murderers.

USED KEROSENE.

And Her Clothing Caught Fire, Causing Fatal Injuries.Dorset, May 11.—Mrs. J. E. Gaudette died yesterday afternoon as the result of her clothing catching fire from a stove fire in her home on Hadley street in the morning. She leaves her husband and three children. Her mother lives in Canada and her brothers and sisters in Manchester, N. H. It is said she was using kerosene to kindle a fire with green wood, and was badly burned before assistance could be rendered.

ICE LEAVES SEBEC LAKE.

Fishermen Are on Hand and Steamers Make First Trips.Foxcroft, Me., May 11.—The ice in the Sebec lake left early yesterday and the passenger steamer on the lake made their first trip in the afternoon. The ice started Sunday evening and a part of the lake cleared. Mail service to points on the lake opened last evening. Though many fishermen visited the lake yesterday, as far as could be learned no salmon were taken.

PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Hold a Meeting in St. Johnsbury With Many Present.St. Johnsbury, May 11.—The three temples of Pythian sisters in this district held a meeting here last evening in Pythian hall, the guests of Clover temple. There were about 50 guests members of Danville Green temple of Danville and Calantha temple of Lyn-donville.Supper was served at 6:30 under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Somerville, followed by an exemplification of the work

UPHOLDS G. A. R. POST.

A Kentucky Man Writes Veterans of Rutland On Young Affairs.Rutland, May 11.—Robert Post, G.
A. R. of this city has received copies of resolutions passed by the Veterans of Mass., and the Rutland post commending the local veterans in their action in criticizing Governor Pruett and Mayor Austin of St. Albans for the Bennett Young invitation. The post today received from Louisville, Ky., a letter from a man who signs himself "a Confederate soldier who did not steal nor desert," in which he says:
"I want to know something of Bennett Young, see Nicolay and Hay's 'Life of Lincoln.' You will find it in the Century Magazine of August, 1889, pages 558 and 559."Capt. James B. Clay ran the blockade during the war to visit his father who died in Canada. Captain Clay carried the commission as a U. S. A. soldier to Young. This was some time after the St. Albans robbery was committed."If a man, stealing my chickens, shot my neighbor, religion might tell me to forgive him if he repented. But I don't think I'd want to invite him to family dinner."

JUDGE DEWEY HEARD.

Court Listens to Plea for Damages of $76,450,000.Boston, May 11.—In the suit of ex-Judge Dewey against Laurence Mott et al, members of the executive committee of the Good Government association, the plaintiff, yesterday argued a motion to increase the ad damnum to $76,450,000 and to have the case advanced up to the first trial, before Judge Edmunds in the equity session of the superior court.
The court referred the question of the amount of damages to the trial judge and would not allow the motion to place the case on the list, having ascertained from the clerk that in the ordinary course of events the case would be on the short list within two or three weeks.

the petition of the Central Vermont to eliminate a grade crossing near Jericho.

RAIN HELPED M. S.

By Stopping Game Gave 3 to 1 Victory Over St. Albans High.St. Albans, May 11.—The ball game here yesterday between the Montpelier seamans and St. Albans high school team was stopped by rain in the middle of the seventh inning, when the score was 3 to 2. The game was declared the visitors', 3 to 1, as the score reverted to the standing at the end of even innings.

STEARNS FARMHOUSE BURNS.

Woodstock Estate Recently Bought by Bert Hoyt—Loss $3,000.Woodstock, May 11.—The farmhouse known as the Stearns farm, recently purchased by Bert Hoyt, together with part of the contents, was destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock yesterday morning.
The loss was $3,000, partially covered by insurance. The cause of the fire was a defective chimney.

HOTEL IN TRUSTEE'S HANDS.

Hotel Burlington Transferred by George M. Delaney to Max Powell.Burlington, May 11.—The Hotel Burlington property was transferred yesterday by George M. Delaney, Max L.
Powell as trustee for the benefit of the creditors. A hotel manager will shortly

DELEGATES ARE ELECTED

To Represent Barre-Montpelier at the League Meeting Which Will Be Held in Burlington
Soon.A meeting of the Barre-Montpelier Base Ball association was held in this city yesterday afternoon, and a committee composed of William Wishart and A. W. Delany was elected to represent this association in the meeting to be held in Burlington some day this week for the purpose of organizing the state league. It is practically a settled thing now that Plattsburgh will come into the league and with the representatives present from Barre-Montpelier, Rutland, Burlington, and Plattsburgh, the league will be organized at this meeting in Burlington, the date of which has not yet been set.The matter of raising the necessary funds for the local association was discussed by the directors and it was decided that $1,500 should be raised to start the season. Of this amount the street railway has already contributed $500, which leaves $1,000 to be raised in each city. The Montpelier directors stated that they could raise their share without any trouble. As for Barre, the directors say that no move towards raising the money has been made, but with twice the population here as in Montpelier, it is believed that there will be little trouble making it by public subscription.The directors think that to start the season right there should be this amount of money raised, and if the fans in the two cities want base ball this summer, it is up to them to help out. The subscription will not be started until after the meeting for organizing the league in Burlington.

MANY ELECTRIC LINES.

Plan From Castleton, to Eagle Bridge, N. Y.Rutland, May 11.—Negotiations are now under way to have the Rutland railway, light and power company take over the passenger traffic of the Delaware & Hudson company in this state and electrically the line from Castles-ton to Eagle Bridge, N. Y., and from Fair Haven to Whitehall, N. Y., operating them in connection with the present local trolley system. This is the Rogers of Rutland, N. Y., president of the Rutland railway, light and power company, who has been in this city the last two days to attend a meeting of the directors held on Saturday.Regarding the negotiations with the Delaware & Hudson, Mr. Rogers said further, "The friendliest relations exist between us and whatever is done will be for the benefit of the public and to our mutual advantage.""If this plan is not feasible we expect to build from Fair Haven, Castles-ton Corners or Rydenville to Poulney, but it will be largely dependent on the attitude of the people along the line."The advantage of our line will be that it will be run in connection with the present system and in case we build to Poulney, we will of course, also extend our power lines through the quarry districts, and will be able to furnish power in unlimited quantities at a lower cost than it can be had there at present."Mr. Rogers said that he knew nothing of the plans of another company to Haven to Poulney and Granville, N. Y. as published last week. He continued:
"We hope it is true. The road has been 'built on wind' many times, and we are glad that other capital appears to be coming in. If power is wanted, we will be glad to furnish it."

CAUSES MUCH LOSS.

tin H. Gibson, South Ryegate; A. A.
Blunt, Boston; Jos. Bowles, St. Johnsbury.

QUARRELSOME WEATHER

Lands Several Parties in City Court on Breach of the Peace Charges.A neighborhood quarrel on Brooklyn street extension which, according to reports, had been brewing for some little time, reached a climax early last evening, when William Carswell and Oliver Desrochia came to blows, with the usual result that both were arrested on the charges of breach of the peace. Victor Lovely and Carswell's young son, Sed-rick, were also arrested on the same charges, it being thought that they were mixed up in the fracas.Before Acting City Judge A. A. Sargent in city court this morning, Desrochia and Carswell pleaded guilty and each paid a fine of $5, with costs of $6.08. Grand Juror Davis stated to the court that he had since learned that Mr. Lovely had taken no part in the fight other than to pull Desrochia off from Carswell, who seemed to be getting the worst of the affair, and he not pressed both charges against Lovely and young Carswell.The grand juror then recommended that the court place both William Carswell and Mr. Lovely under bonds to keep the peace. J. Ward Carver, attorney for Desrochia, also asked the court to place them under bonds. The court said that he would take the matter under consideration and he warned the parties not to get into this trouble again, as he said he had known of complaints being made of trouble in that locality for a long time and if these respondents were brought up before him again the charges would be serious.It is said that a base ball belonging to the Carswell boy bounded over into Desrochia's yard Sunday and this trouble, augmented by ill feeling that had been stirred up long before, was the result.S. Firshah, a rag peddler, was arraigned in the city court last evening on the charge of breach of the peace for an alleged altercation with Ida Jacobs. Fir-shah pleaded not guilty and his case was continued to Thursday. He was placed under $50 bail, which was furnished by M. S. Levin.Pat Starkey was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officer Hamel, who found him asleep on a doorstep on North Main street. This forenoon Pat had such a bad case of the "morning after" sickness that he was not in fit condition to bring into court.ALL JUDGES PRESENT AT OPENING TODAYChief Justice Rowell Takes His Seat on the Supreme Court Bench for the First Time During This Session.The second week of the Vermont supreme court opened at Montpelier this morning with all the judges in their places for the first time this session.
Chief Justice John W. Rowell of Randolph had been previously detained at his home because of illness. Only one case was heard this morning, that being the Windham county case of Richard Corey vs. Delbert Boynton, general assault, the result of a horse trade said to have been made on Sunday.In the lower court the plaintiff got a verdict of $147.42 and costs. The other Windham county cases will be placed at the head of the docket, because the defendants in the cases are concerned in county court trials. Washington county cases will be heard soon, among which are two negligence cases, the malpractice suit of Delbert Lawson vs. Crane and Hall and that of David Fraser vs. A. G. Blanchard et al.
